THE MINT OF THE UNITED STATES AT PHILADELPHIA,

SUPERINTENDENT'S OFFICE,

Mr.Bauman L. Belden,

New York,N.Y.

Dear Mr.Belden:

I am in receipt of a letter from Dr.Andrews stating that he had notified the American Society of the acceptance of the group of medals selected for the Mint and also that authority had been procured to have the same transferred to the Mint at once. Accordingly arrangements were started at once here to consummate the purchase. Of course we will have to purchase from the American Society and you will receive a Proposal form today,or at the latest,tomorrow, which you will kindly fill out with the prices and return. I might just as well have added the prices when I typed the proposal, but I was not sure of just what figure to give the Franc and Krone to cover all expense including transmission to Europe if that cost is to be born by the purchaser. Of course that is a small item; but also the trouble of figuring out the equivalents in U.S. money is a small task and I know that you like to work. I presume that the Franc at $0.195 (its exchange quotation is 5.17 1/2 + 1/37 or about $0.193) and the Krone at $0.205 would cover all charges. However I leave it to you to figure ours on the same basis you have reckoned the others.

The express charges on the small package will be about a Quarter, and I wish you would add that amount to the cost of one of the medals, say the Patria, and then pay the charge at that end of the line. Otherwise I should have to pay it out of my own pocket, a favor which I am tired of bestowing upon our poor Government.

You know that under the law the goods must be delivered before a voucher can be drawn. So you can pack up the medals and notify the Collector of your readiness to transfer them to the Superintendent of the Mint at Philadelphia, whenever you please. Probably Mr. Loeb will at once authorize the shipment; for no additional bond will be required, and the entry bond is to be cancelled- all of which makes the job easy.

The inclosed list of prices may save you some trouble. They are, as you see, your own figures, and which we carefully revised and revised until they are certainly correct.

Very sincerely yours,

THE MINT OF THE UNITED STATES AT PHILADELPHIA,

SUPERINTENDENT'S OFFICE,

June 10,1910.

My dear Belden:

I am writing you again. Cannot you give me pretty close estimates of what the medals selected foem the Exhibition for the Mint will cost me? You have the prices, and have some idea of what extra cost there will be. I want to ascertain just what amount I shall have from this year's appropriation at once so I can make purchses with the balance before the 1st of July. If you will give me the figures as closely as you can I shall be greatly obliged.

Very truly yours,

F.M.Dorpalette.

THE MINT OF THE UNITED STATES AT PHILADELPHIA,

SUPERINTENDENT'S OFFICE,

June,10,1910.

My dear Mr.Belden:

Will you kindly inform me what material you have found best to cover your exhibition cases with? It seems to me that you are using a sort of canvas, but I am not sure. I have worked on this subject again and again the past three or four years and have never been able to reach a conclusion as to what is the best. The museums are now in doubt on the subject and are experimenting with various materials and colors. For various reasons I am not inclined to use velvet; for it marks; nor felt, for it is so readily attacked by the moths. Canvas is rather coarse where close inspection is constant, and so on. Tell me what you have used please, if anything else than just plain painted board.

Could you send me a small sample of what you have tried? You may have a tiny scrap that is otherwise worthless.

I thank you in advance for your kindness.

Very sincerely yours,
J.W.Comparette.

THE MINT OF THE UNITED STATES AT PHILADELPHIA,

SUPERINTENDENT'S OFFICE,

June 27th, 1910.

My dear Belden:

I find that you have never returned the Proposal sent you several weeks ago. It should have been signed in duplicate nadreturned to the Mint immediately. If it is not done before the first of July I will lose a portion of this year's appropriation, the portiaon kept back for the purchase of thesemedals. So please sigh the inclosed blanks immediately and return them to the Superintendent of the Mint.

If there should be any reason why it cannot be done please wire or telephone me immediately so I can make some other arrangement in order to save my appropriation.

I have inclosed a list of the prices. I never knew whether those were prices of the medals delivered or not. If transportation charges are to be added, add in that item, making it what you think will cover the probable cost of importation. There will be no duty on them you will recall.

Very truly yours,

F. L. Conquette

If B. is absent, will Miss Belden send the inquiries? Allow twenty cents for the Phoenix, if in doubt, and 21 for the Kenna. I will attend personally to the rest.

THE MINT OF THE UNITED STATES AT PHILADELPHIA,

SUPERINTENDENT'S OFFICE,

February 20,1912.

My Dear Belden:-

Yes, I expect to be here next Monday; in the meantime I also expect to be in New York, and may have a chance to talk with you.

For the object of your visit here have you procured authority from the Director of the Mint, Mr. Roberts? The Superintendent will, I am assured, not recognize the letter, with which you first secured the favor, as a continuing authority.

Furthermore, I find that that letter permitted you to make impressions only of certain private gold coins; and I am under the impression that you were allowed to exceed that authority on that visit. If so, I of course acted under a wrong impression of the scope of the letter. And in that case the matter comes up to you and Adams as one of honor, to protect me fully by withholding from publication anything that you procured here and which could not have been had from other sources. I have no doubt but that you both will do the right thing, when once the status of the matter has been called to your attention.

This collection ought of course to be accessible to any persons who want to make a legitimate use of it, and doubtless is; but you know ~~xxx kxxx~~ about the edges of official authority.

So, please do not forget the claims of an over-indulgent friend who may have unwittingly allowed you too much freedom.

Very sincerely yours,

Pt. Grounfarth

Mrs. A. C. Williamson,
Medal Clerk,
United States Mint,
Philadelphia.

Dear Madam:-

I am sorry to trouble you about a matter of business in connection with Dr. Comparette, but as I believe the matter concerns the Mint Collection rather than himself personally, I venture to request your kind offices.

The subscription to our medals have a time limit, and as this was not enough to enable Dr. Comparette to obtain an authorization he used to order the medal, and I assume pay for it himself and then put through a voucher for it. We always understood the situation and told him that he need not be in a hurry to make settlement. In consequence, there is still charged against him five dollars for a bronze Choate Medal which was sent him toward the end of April. Can you look up this matter, or if this is not in your province refer it to some one who can straighten out the difficulty? If it would simplify matters to have the medal returned, that can be done if so desired.

Very truly yours,

(Signed) Sydney P. Noe,

Secretary.
